

Anne Roques

Bilingual Executive Coach
Cross cultural expert
Global Supply Chain Manager

Profile

Anne Roques has been an Executive Coach since 1999, guiding executives and leaders on their international journey to success. She helps individuals steer through the challenging periods in their professional journey. She has specialised in assisting her clients on issues of effectiveness, leadership and work/life balance. She also facilitates smooth, swift and successful transitions to new positions or working environments very often with an international dimension.

She gained a wealth of corporate, business and management experience through the different international roles she has held in the Finance, Supply Chain and Change Management areas before becoming an Executive Coach. Over 18 years (out of which 11 years in the UK) her key responsibilities have concentrated on customer services, financial management and project management. She has held several positions in the Chemical industry (including Bayer Chemical) such as Europe Customer Services Manager, European Planning Director and Global Supply Chain Project Manager. This has given Anne an excellent understanding of the complexity of international business issues and allow her to put her clients' situations in the right perspective. Her references are with companies such as Air France, Bayer, Dell, Oracle, Danone, Lafarge, SFR, Rockwells Collins, Alcatel, Cegos, Orrick.
