

John Blakey

Leadership Coach
Entrepreneur
Ex-Managing Director
Speaker and Writer
Martial Arts Expert

Profile

John is an inspiring, bright, honest and visionary coach who can be relied upon to develop Board level FTSE250 leaders. He is a proven entrepreneur and business leader himself with a track record of leading international businesses and delivering results through working collaboratively in diverse teams.

In the nineties, John was Director of IT consultancy, Team121 - one of the UK's fastest growing companies. He then became International Managing Director at Logica before becoming their Director of Coaching - the first such role in a FTSE250 organisation. In 2004, John co-founded the leadership transformation consultancy, 121partners, which was shortlisted as 'business of the year' in the 2007 Business Start Up awards.

John has a strong spiritual outlook on life fuelled by many years as a t'ai chi / yoga practitioner, published poet and presenter / writer on personal transformation. He has an MBA, an MSc in IT and has been a voluntary Board member of a number of community organisations. Outside of work, John lives in Solihull with his wife and two sons.

Total Number of Individuals Coached	>150 across the globe including Board level leaders in organisations such as British Airways, Logica, Jones Lang LaSalle, Telenor, Steria and Yell
Years of Experience as Executive Coach	7
Coaching Qualifications	Associate Certified Coach (ACC) with the International Coach Federation Accredited Coach and Advanced Coach with the European Coaching Foundation Certified Counsellor Master Practitioner in Executive Coaching (part complete)